TECHNICIANS & ASSISTANTS –
115,190

These state licensed professionals are responsible for helping licensed pharmacists provide medication and other health care products to patients. Technicians usually perform routine tasks to help prepare prescribed medication for patients, such as counting tablets and labeling bottles. Employment of pharmacy technicians is expected to grow much faster than the average for all occupations through 2014 because as the population grows and ages, demand for pharmaceuticals will increase dramatically. They are excellent prospects for continuing education, journals, publications, seminars, as well as credit cards, magazines, vacations and much more.
